Key Milestones
CFANS Research Apprenticeship Program (RAP)

September 2013
- RAP Kick-off Meeting, September 2013 (Date/Time TBD)

October 2013
- Meet with URPC faculty liaison in early October.
- Meet with prospective faculty research mentors.
- Workshop: What is Research? At this workshop, students will learn about research methods, and explore the meaning of research. Discuss literature review and proposal writing tips. (Date/Time TBD)

November – December 2013
- Meet with prospective faculty research mentors.
- Workshop: Exploring Library Resources. At this workshop, students will learn about library search engines, assignment calculator, and RefWorks. (Date/Time TBD)

December 2013
- Finalize faculty mentor selection process. Deadline: December 20, 2013

January – March 2014
- Begin literature review and begin working on research proposal.

April 2014
- Complete first draft of research proposal.
- Meet with URPC faculty liaison to review/critique first draft of research proposal.
- Attend U of M Undergraduate Symposium. (Date TBD)

May 2014
- Submit final draft of research proposal, application form, and mentor recommendation form to CFANS Undergraduate Research Program Committee for review/approval. Deadline: April 30, 2014

September 2014 – March 2015
- Work on research project. Write research paper and develop research poster.

April 2015
- Submit final draft of research paper to RAP Coordinator. Deadline: May 1, 2015
- Present research at U of M Undergraduate Symposium. (Date TBD)

updated / posted online September 2013